During this Execution Leadership Program, you will learn...

How well your organization currently meets the three critical imperatives for Excellence In Execution.

As pre-work for this workshop, you will conduct a fast and efficient online assessment of your organization's current Execution effectiveness. You will conduct this as an individual, team or group exercise and then bring your Execution assessment results to the workshop for gap analysis and action planning.

How to achieve faster, better Execution results and leadership success with COMPREHENSIVE Execution Leadership Checklists. What does a leader need to know and do to ensure fast, collaborative and consistent Execution? During the two-day intensive workshop, you will learn and apply proven Execution Leadership Checklists for each of the three critical imperatives for Excellence In Execution.

How to apply a virtual methodology that accelerates and improves Execution across levels, functions and locations. Before, during and after the workshop, you will have a hands-on experience using the Leadership In FastTime® virtual methodology. This will accelerate collaboration and practical application of what you learn to your immediate leadership challenges and opportunities.

A proven formula for Excellence In Execution directly from the architect of Leadership In FastTime®.

The program will be led by Leland Russell, author of "Winning In FastTime®" and architect of Leadership In FastTime® and one of GEO Group's Managing Directors (Joyce Reynolds-Sinclair, Ph.D. or Frank Wagner, Ph.D.) . Following the workshop, each participant will receive one hour of personalized Execution coaching.

Best practices from workshop co-leaders and graduates who are applying Leadership In FastTime®

The learning process does not end with the workshop. There will be 3 follow-up online learning sessions that deliver additional application insights, and provide answers to YOUR application questions and additional support material.
